INSCRIBED TO THE MEMORY OF MISS KATE QUARLES.

Up to a quiet content home,
A few short weeks ago,
A little while since,
A heart in youth's sweet glow;
And long we knew she might not stay,
For she was mother's pride,
And father's little joy;
That clouds could never drive,
And she was dear to all around;
To all a treasure, friend,
And home was changed with her voice,
With her spirit's gentle glow,
Oh, how we miss her when the summer days
Bring back her memory;
And now, when autumn's golden haze
Has given autumn birth,
None, none in her mother's house
Has heard the glad voice,
For God, who loves a cheerful heart,
Of that sweet heart made choice;
For one who in our convent home,
Death sweet her bow,
The message every heart must hear,
To each heart must bow.

She craved baptism's cleansing grace
It made her God's own child,
And to the angels her pure soul
Shone like a star;
Who could expect of such a life
So ripe for bliss above?
What fate for that that called
This soul from purest love.

The mothering, sad no hope
But alive to be resigned,
And an agonizing heart,
The soul's last breath,
No eyes upon the father's face,
When he had reached her side,
That night she folded both her hands
Then turned her face to God.

It was his sleep, and four quiet days,
That death was visited;
Her soul was free, her body closed,
Her face so calmly fair.

Who has not felt a thrill of awe
When standing near the dead?
For death is wondrous strange to life,
Though life and death are well
But none beside that white-robed form,
So calm, so pure, so true.

Could feel a thrill, for death seemed sweet
In her face, so calm, so true.

And while we wept for those whose hearts
Were torn with bitter grief,
E'en while we gazed on her face,
We felt something of relief.

We cannot see her more,
We cannot see her more,
We cannot see her more,
We cannot see her more.

The grace of God, besides whose depths
Earth's joys are as show-dances meet.

CHAS. M. MEACHAM, Editor.

HOPKINSVILLE, OCT. 3, 1882.

FOR CONGRESS.

JAMES F. CLAY,
OF HENDERSON.

FOR CONGRESS.

Dr. Wm. M. Fugus, of Christian, is a candidate for Congress in opposition to Mr. Clay in the Second District, subject to the action of the people at the polls. Election November 7th, 1882.

Bro. Barnes is beating the lion in his den and tackling the devil in Cincinnati.

Kordell and Miner, the two convicted star routers were granted a new trial.

The Henderson Sentinel calls the Christian county bolters "noble stalwarts." "Such is fame."

The Henderson Fair will begin tomorrow. It is unfortunate that the time was set to conflict with ours.

Mr. John E. Johnson, the venerable father of Col. E. Polk Johnson, died in Louisville last week.

The work of the office of the Court of Appeals has been divided. Capt. Values will attend to the Court of Appeals and Col. Poore to the Superior Court.

The name of Hon. Jas. F. Clay, of Henderson county, is to-day placed at the head of our columns as the Democratic candidate for Congress in this district.

The Robt. E. Lee, the finest steamer on the Mississippi river, burned last Saturday morning, thirty miles below Vicksburg. Scores of lives were lost and the vessel was a total wreck.

The New York Sun says the next House will stand as follows: Democrats 179; Republicans 130; Independents 7. Hon. Jno. G. Carlisle will probably be the Democratic candidate for Speaker.

Mayor Grover Cleveland, of Buffalo, has been nominated as the Democratic candidate for Governor of New York and all factions of the party are united. Secretary Chas. J. Folger has been nominated by the Republicans and the campaign has already opened.

The Henderson Reporter disclaims any intention to question our Democracy. The paragraph in the Reporter which spoke of a "new departure of the South Kentuckian," was certainly capable of being construed that way, but the editor's explanation is entirely satisfactory.

The Kentucky Press Association has been invited to hold its next meeting at Lexington. Those who attended the Press meeting in 1880 will remember that Lexington was the only city visited that did not do the handsome thing by the body. Maybe she is ashamed of herself and we are in favor of giving her another chance to show her hospitality.

Milt Young, formerly of this city, has been one of the most successful turfmen of this country. He recently purchased a blue-grass stock farm for $47,000 and retired from the turf, having amassed a fortune amounting to nearly $100,000 in less than three years. He has lived in Henderson for some years past.

The editor of the State Sentinel wishes to be "exonerated from the charge of deceit, unfair dealing, dishonesty, misrepresentation and bragadoles" contained in an extra issued by the News and South Kentuckian last week. The words did not refer to him, but to the writer of the letter from Owensboro, published in the Sentinel, and which was a piece of dirty work that ought to disgrace its author.

Decisions of the Clay Convention.

The convention at Madisonville in admitting the Christian county bolters, virtually made the following decisions:

One man can hold a convention. Bolting is a fine art and should be encouraged.

The chairman of a precinct convention cannot vote.

A Republican can hold a Democratic convention alone, without going to the voting place.

When a precinct convention breaks up in a row, it should be counted for the minority side.

Precincts that fail to hold conventions are to be counted for the minority in county conventions.

The chairman of a precinct convention may vote if he constitutes the whole convention.

In a district convention a committee on credentials should consist of six for the majority and one for the minority.

Two conventions can be held in the same precinct and the one instructing for the weaker candidate shall be legal.

Two county conventions may be held in the same county, at the same time, under the same call, for the same purpose and both be legal.

In a county convention a committee on credentials should consist of three members for the majority and three for the minority.

THE CONGRESSIONAL CONVENTION.

Hon. Jas. F. Clay Nominated on the First Ballot.

Christian is Robbed of Half Her Vote to Save Clay's Friends Who Had Bets on the County.

The Convention to nominate a candidate for Congress, in the Second District, was called to order at 2 p. m. Sept. 27th, in the court-house at Madisonville, by Hon. Polk Laffoon. Hon. Cromwell Adair, of Union, was chosen temporary chairman, and John A. Lyne, of Henderson, temporary secretary. All editors present were made assistant secretaries. The chair then appointed the following committees, Christian being deprived of representation:

ON CREDENTIALS.
Davies, A. C. Tompkins; Hancock, Urey Woodson, (proxy, named by Zeno F. Young, proxy for the county); Henderson, R. D. Vance; Hopkins, C. W. Crabtree; McLean, A. J. Ayer; Union, C. A. Board; Webster, F. M. Baker.

ON PERMANENT ORGANIZATION.
Davies, Jno. R. Lambert; Hancock, Z. F. Young, proxy; Henderson, R. H. Cunningham; Hopkins, A. J. Sisk; McLean, B. H. Morehead; Union, Thos. B. Young; Webster, W. I. Moore.

ON RESOLUTIONS.
Davies, Geo. F. Haynes; Hancock, Z. F. Young, proxy; Henderson, S. A. Young; Hopkins, Polk Laffoon; McLean, A. W. Johnson; Union, D. C. Flournoy; Webster, R. F. Coffman.

While the committee on credentials was out, the convention was addressed by Col. Thos. L. Jones and Judge M. H. Owensley, candidates for Governor, and P. W. Hardin and R. A. Jones candidates for Attorney General.

The committee on permanent organization reported, naming Hon. A. K. Bradley, of Hopkins, as permanent chairman, and Zeno F. Young as permanent secretary, and all Democratic editors as assistant secretaries.

The committee on credentials brought in two reports as follows:

MAJORITY REPORT.
We, a majority of the committee, respectfully recommend the admission of the following delegates:

We further recommend that the vote of Christian county be equally divided between Mr. Pettit and Mr. Clay.

[Signed] C. A. BOARD, A. C. TOMPKINS, F. M. BAKER, A. J. AYER, C. W. CRABTREE, R. D. VANCE.

MINORITY REPORT.

The minority of the committee respectfully recommends that C. M. Meacham, A. Seargent, P. M. Owen, W. E. Ragdale, R. H. DeTreville, Jno. M. Dulin, Jno. W. Cooper, Walter Garnett and Hunter Wood be admitted as delegates from Christian county; that the vote of Christian be counted as a unit for Mr. Pettit, and that the gentlemen from the other counties, whose names are mentioned in the majority report be admitted as delegates also.

[Signed] UREY WOODSON.

After some discussion, the counties were called and voted as follows:

For the majority report—Henderson, 11; Hopkins, 7; McLean, 4; Union, 10; Webster, 5; total 27.

Against—Davies, 15; Hancock, 3; total 18.

Hancock was voted by Mr. Zeno F. Young, a Clay man, who respected honesty, justice and fair dealing. The majority report was adopted and the regular delegation from Christian gave way to the bolters, who were counted in by a committee of Clay men, who had prejudged the case, and who refused to be governed by evidence.

The committee on resolutions reported as follows:

Resolved, That the Democracy of the Second Congressional district of

[Sept. 12-20.]

Kentucky, in Congressional convention assembled, renew their devotion to the fundamental principles of Government and liberty expressed in the last National platform of the Democratic party, and pledge their unwavering support of the nominees of this convention.

2. That the present distinguished representative in Congress of this district, Hon. James A. McKenzie, deserves the plaudit, "Well done thou good and faithful servant," and receives in his affliction the most cordial sympathy of his constituents.

The report was adopted. Nominations were then declared in order.

Hon. Jas. F. Clay, of Henderson, was nominated by Hon. Polk Laffoon, and Hon. Thos. S. Pettit of Davies, by Urey Woodson. The vote was taken and recorded as follows:

For Clay—Christian, 4½; Hancock, 3; Henderson, 11; Hopkins, 7; McLean, 4; Union, 10; Webster, 5; total 44½.

For Pettit—Davies, 15; Christian, 4½; total 19½.

As soon as the result was announced, Mr. Pettit, mounted a bench in the rear of the room and spoke as follows:

Mr. Chairman: It is apparent from the announcement just made, that a majority of the votes cast in the convention are in favor of Mr. Clay and not myself. It is a cardinal doctrine of the Democratic party that the majority must rule, and so believing I now move you, sir, that the vote of this convention be made unanimous; [Applause] and I do this not grudgingly, but with a heartiness that comes from a canvass upon my part where no censure is cast and with an eulogium presented that is unceasing and unrelenting. To the many friends who have stood by me so manfully in the contest throughout the District, I tender my most sincere acknowledgments, and assure them that they are linked in my memory through life as with "hooks of steel." Whilst for those who have opposed me honorably, I entertain but the kindest sentiments. "A man generally attends his own funeral, but it is not expected that he will speak much upon such an occasion," and so recognizing that fact it only becomes me to say to the Democracy of the District that I believe the principles of the party will have an able advocate in my more successful competitor for Congressional honors. And thus having I tender him and the convention my most profound congratulations. [Prolonged applause.]

The motion was unanimously carried. A committee was then appointed to escort Mr. Clay to the stand. He appeared and accepted the nomination in a speech of fifteen minutes, after which the convention adjourned.

The following is a list of the Congressional candidates nominated in the various districts:

1. Convention Oct. 3. Rep. or Ind. Oscar Turner, Wm. M. Fugus, J. M. Halsey, W. G. Hunter, T. A. Robertson, S. A. Willis, Elias Miller, Jno. G. Carlisle, J. C. S. Blackburn, (will be), Phil B. Thompson, J. S. Tipton, W. W. Culbertson, Geo. M. Adams, Jno. D. White, Frank Wolford, D. R. Carr.

It is our purpose to give to the farmers who contemplate buying a harrow an opportunity to determine for themselves by actual comparison, which is the best harrow offered for sale; and to do this we invite their attention to which we claim has no equal for lightness of draft, durability and as a pulverizer. For further particulars we refer you to our circulars and to those who have tried our harrows. County rights for sale.

T. D. ROBERTS, J. D. ROBERTS, J. H. ROBERTS.

CERTIFICATE.

We have tried Beazell's Double Rotary Harrow sold by Roberts' Bros. of Hopkinsville, Ky., and we do say it is far superior to any other harrow we have used and it will do all they claim for it in their circulars and we take pleasure in recommending it to the farmers of this county and the state of Kentucky.
